Established in 1930, The Kincaig Hotel has long held a central place in the life of Naracoorte and the Limestone Coast. Named after the original settlement of Kincaig, she has welcomed generations of locals and travellers as a place to stay, gather and feel at home. And from her position at the heart of the region, The Kincaig has always offered a natural base from which to explore and connect with all the Limestone Coast has to offer.

Today, The Kincaig has been lovingly restored with Art Deco stylings and subtle nods to her Scottish heritage. The stag in our logo – inspired by classic Scottish symbolism – reflects that heritage and reinforces the strength and character of the place itself. She is a place with real heart and soul.

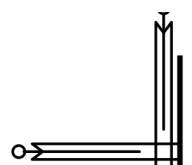

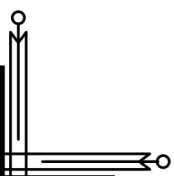

At her heart, The Kincaig is about people. We want every guest to feel welcome here – a home away from home, delivered with genuine country hospitality. Whether visiting for business, celebration or a short escape, our hope is that every stay leaves a lasting impression. And for our community, The Kincaig is an investment in shared heritage, restored thoughtfully for all to enjoy. A place that reflects the character, pride and spirit of the community she serves.
